FROM CUBA.

Havana Papers on the Situation.

HAVANA, Dec. 17.—The proposed enrollment for military duty of all men between 18 and 45 years, a fourth of whom are to be conscripted for active service, is gaining advocates.

The Diarid says: "We are now at the 15th of December and have raised no means, and done nothing new to crush the rebellion. Let us give fresh impulse to the winter campaign, if we would advance on the road to the pacification of the Island. The enemy will gain time and territory and we will have cause to deplore our criminal vacillation. Without great and united movement on our part the war will drag on as it has to the present hour. It has consumed annually from fourteen to fifteen thousand soldiers and forty million dollars. When we find ourselves fallen, never to rise again, we will bitterly regret our short-sighted lack of preparation.

The Voz de Cuba shows that the resistance of Cartagena is draining the resources of Spain and weakening her power. Castellar is not strong enough now to oppose the exactions of foreign governments, which nearly all tend to the destruction of Cuba, and the longer his declining power is respected and obeyed in Cuba the greater is the probability that the object of these foreign demands will be accomplished.

Several letters appear in evening journals addressed to the Captain General, and calling on him to declare the Island in a state of seige and to enroll citizens.

A steamer from Cadiz arrived today with 800 soldiers and 150 seamen.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Doings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Wilson, of Indiana, from the Indian Committee, reported a resolution authorizing that Committee to send for persons and papers in the inquiry as to the official conduct of Judge Busteed, of Ala., and a resolution instructing that Committee to inquire and report whether Judge Durell, of Louisiana, should be impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors with power to send for persons and papers, which were adopted.

SENATE.—The proceedings this morning show little probability of the passage of the Bankrupt Repeal before the holidays. Fenton is speaking on finances. This chokes off the Louisiana question to-day.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

FROM NEW YORK.

Removal of the Barge Before the Arapiles—The Genet Trial—Burned to Death—Accidents During the Fog.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—The barge Upland, which was accidentally sunk in front of the gates of the dry dock at the Brooklyn navy yard, preventing the Spanish iron-clad Arapiles from going out, was surveyed to-day by divers preparatory to commencing the work of raising her. The contractor for supplying coal will have to bear the expenses of raising the vessel, as the government holds that she was sunk through carelessness. The Spanish captain has written to Admiral Rowan expressing an earnest desire to get away.

In the Genet trial to-day, John McBride Davidson testified that he applied to Tweed in 1871 for a contract for furnishing the iron work to the Harlem court house and was referred to Genet, who directed him to make out his bill, and he did as directed. Never saw the bill after; never got money or supplied the goods Ex-Mayor Hall identified his signature to the warrant for the money.

Vandycks hotel, in Catherine street, was slightly damaged by fire this morning, and a guest named Nolan was burned to death.

There were several accidents in this city during the dense fog this morning.

The Fruits of Reconstruction—A Mail Robber Turned out of the Alabama Senate.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Dec. 17.—The Senate last night unseated Hatch, Senator from Hale county, elected last Spring to fill a vacancy. It seems that Hatch was three years ago postmaster of the county site of Hale county. Moneys were missed from the mails, and Hatch made an affidavit accusing Sanborn, his clerk. After Sanborn had been jailed several months, investigation pressed Hatch so closely that he wrote a confession of his own guilt, which was published and he agreed with special agent Petherbridge, to pay up. Suit was commenced in the United States Court and Hatch was turned out of office. Hatch then ran for the Senate and was elected by a large majority. But on the above showing the Senate declared him ineligible. He is a Republican.

Illinois Farmers' Convention.

CHICAGO, ILL., Dec. 17.—The second annual Convention of the Illinois State Farmers' Association commenced at Decatur yesterday. The President of the Association delivered an address, reviewing the growth of the society and its results to its members. At the first meeting, one year ago, only about 40 counties were represented, now every one of the eighty counties in the State had its clubs, and in a majority of the counties the farmers carried their ticket at the last election.

FROM WASHINTON.

Congressional Matters—Debate on the Bankrupt Laws—Stephens and Cuban Belligerency—The Virginius Released—Movements of the Transportation Committee—Opposition to Williams' Confirmation—Pardon of More Ku Klux—The Wants of the Treasury—Another Field Day in the House over the Salary Bill—SIX Thousand Per Annum and Mileage and no Pay Back.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—In the Senate to-day Bogy, in reporting a private bill from the Committee on Indian Affairs, took occasion to severely criticise the administration of Indian affairs, and pronounced the whole legislation a farce from beginning to end.

The House bill increasing the number of enlisted men in the navy to ten thousand was reported, but Sherman opposing the bill went over.

There was a long debate on House bill to repeal the bankrupt law.

Edmunds moved its reference to the Judiciary Committee. He was satisfied of the impolicy of an absolute repeal of the law, but thought that the Committee would be able to prepare a bill which would relieve the present law of its obnoxious features and would at the same time protect the interests of both creditors and debtors.

Frelinghuysen was also opposed to the absolute repeal and wanted it referred.

During the discussion of the motion to refer the morning hour expired. The general disposition indicates the repeal.

Fenton made a long speech on finances, arguing in favor of the immediate contraction of the currency and reduction of government expenses. There was considerable discussion over adopting the House recess resolution, which was indefinitely postponed.

The special naval appropriation bill of four millions was passed.

In the House to-day Stephens, of Georgia, said if he had been present yesterday he would have voted for the repeal of the bankrupt act and against the repeal of the salary bill.

Stephen also presented the memorial of the Cuban meeting, held in New York, requesting the recognition of Cuban belligerency. It was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

The bill for the redemption of the loan of 1858, with the Senate amendments, was passed; also, a bill to so amend the laws in relation to Internal Revenue, as to allow distillery warehouses to continue business after a change in the managers thereof.

There was a long debate in the House on an amendment to the salary bill, striking out the words "during his present term of office," as applied to the exception made in regard to the President's salary.

The State department has information that the Virginius was released yesterday morning, the 16th inst., at 9 o'clock, and sailed from Bahia-Honda at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Senate Committee on transportation routes to the seaboard, leave this city on Monday for Atlanta, Ga., where they will continue the examination of the subject referred to them, and then proceed to New Orleans and other Southern points.

A delegation from Oregon, opposing the nomination of Williams to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, was before the Judiciary Committee this morning.

Samuel G. Brown and Robert Rigney, both of South Carolina, and imprisoned at Albany for offences against the Ku Klux law, have been pardoned.

Several prominent members of Congress to-day, while privately expressing their views against the proposed holiday recess, said that if the Senate agreed to the House resolution for that purpose, more than a month must elapse before anything could be done for the relief of the Treasury. They alluded to the fact that while the redemption of the loan of 1858 involved additional obligations, the extraordinary appropriation of $4,000,000 for the navy exceeded what could possibly be saved by a reduction of the estimates, and besides, the Secretary had already drawn eighteen millions and a half from the forty-four million of reserve, without which the Treasury would now be bankrupt. The reserve was constantly being drawn upon and therefore it was imperative, with a due regard to the public credit, to devise measures of relief without delay. What these should be they was not prepared to say, but they, with others, were prepared to restore the duty on tea and coffee and increase the tax on spirits and tobacco, which were the more easily collected, or they would agree to a temporary convertible loan tax of fifty millions. At all events Congress should not think of a holiday adjournment until ample provision be made for the Treasury, the receipts of which yesterday were not more than one-third of what they would have been but for the effects of the panic.

There was another filed day in the House on the Salary Bill. After the bill had been amended by requiring the restitution of the back pay received by those members who had also been members of the last Congress, a substitute was adopted in spite of the opposition of the friends of the reduction, and of the Committee who had charge of the bill. The substitute makes the salary of members six thousand dollars with an allowance for actual traveling expenses, but it has no retroactive effect. There was great confusion and excitement in the House during the last three or four hours, and it was not until 9 o'clock that the House adjourned.

LOCAL BRIEFS—

Christmas one week off to-day.

Christmas eggs and turkies are now being bought.

Mrs. Oates and her troupe are coming in this direction soon. We hope she will favor us with a visit.

Thieving depredations still continue in the Eastern Ward. Several attempts have been made this week to enter dwellings.

It is reported that the schedules on the railroads running to this city are soon to change. What the changes will be we are not informed.

On Tuesday 330 bales of cotton came into the city. This is the largest number of bales received in one day in this city that we remember hearing of.

Smith, of the Milton Chronicle, the best looking editor, honored our sanctum with a call yesterday. He represents the Chronicle as in a flourishing condition, also his section generally.

George Edwards, whose first appearance in this country was with old Joe Sweeney's minstrels fifteen years ago, is the principal end man of the "gigantic" minstrel troupe now performing in this city.

The premises of Wm. Carl Brown, the artist on Fayetteville street, were entered by thieves on Tuesday night, but the timely appearance of Mr. B. on the scene, armed with a revolver, put the depredators to flight.

Duprez & Benedicts minstrels again to-night. If you do not get reserve tickets go early to secure seats. From the character of their performance last night it is reasonable to suppose that the Hall will not hold the audience to-night.

Remember the Oyster Supper to-night at the Hall of Oak City Council. Only 50c admission fee. It is for a praiseworthy object and your charity could not be bestowed in a purer or nobler cause. The Hall will be open at 7½ o'clock.

It was an unusual occurrence to see so many ladies in attendance at the minstrel performance of Duprez and Benedict last night at Tucker Hall. It is a compliment to this troupe which we think well merited, judging from the chaste character of its performance.

LECTURE OF DR. EDWARDS.—The lecture of this learned and eloquent divine at the Hall of the House of Representatives last evening was, we are glad to say, well attended, and was listened to with deep attention and appreciation. Of course in a brief mention like this we can only allude to the lecture in a general way, but we say everything when we say that the effort was worthy of Mr. Edwwards' high reputation, in the field of oratory and letters.

This evening Mr. Edwards will lecture in Metropolitan Hall, taking as his subject, "The World was not Made in a Day, or Gradual Progress—the Law of Permanent Development." A full house will greet him, we know.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 17.

Senate met at 11 o'clock, Lieut. Governor in the Chair.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Reports of Standing Committees.

Reports from Standing Committees were submitted as follows: Mr. Murray, from Engrossed Bills; Mr. Love, from Propositions and Grievances; Mr. Gudger, from Corporations; Mr. Mr. Morehead, of Rockingham, from Internal Improvements; Mr. Avera, from Propositions and Grievances; Mr. Cunningham, from Educational; Mr. Cowles, from Privileges and Elections; Mr. Gudger, from Judiciary; Mr. Price, from Judiciary; Mr. Flemming, from Judiciary.

Messages Received.

From the House, transmitting a number of bills and asking the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Also a resolution from the House in reference to adjournment. The resolution rescinds the former resolution and proposes to take a recess from the 22nd of December to the 12th of Jaunary.

Mr. Seymour moved to indefinitely postpone, stating that there was no business before the General Assembly that could not be finished by the 24th inst.

Messrs. Allen and Avera opposed the motion, arguing that it would be impossible to complete the work in seven days, considering the fact that that it required six days to perfect the revenue bill.

Mr. Todd favored the motion to indefinitely postpone, stating that it was the voice of the people, as heard on the Constitutional Amendments last summer for a short session, and in obedience to the wish of his constituents would vote for the motion.

Mr. Love was tired of child's play. He believed the business could be done by the 24th, and would vote for the postponement.

Mr. Dunham would have voted against the resolution that was now proposed to be rescinded for the reason that he was satisfied that the interest of the people of the State demanded proper legislation, which could not be done in the time required, and he would oppose the postponement.

Harris, colored, opposed the motion.

Two amendments were offered; one by Mr. Seymour that members should not draw per diem; one by Mr. Welsh, amended by Mr Troy, to strike out and insert "adjourn on the 24th and meet again on the 29th," both of which failed, and the resolution was adopted under a call for the yeas and nayes by a vote of 26 yeas to 20 nayes.

Special Order.

The Civil Rights resolution of Eppes', colored, requesting our Representatives in Congress to use their influence to secure the passage of a law similar to the one now before Congress, known as the Sumner bill, &c.

Mr. Troy said that as it was important that white people should have the same privileges as the colored, he would call the yeas and nays on the passage of the resolution.

Eppes and Harriss spoke at considerable length in favor of the adoption of the resolution.

Harriss, col., offered an amendment to strike out "similar to the Sumner bill," and insert a "bill to secure civil rights," &c.

The amendment was voted down and the original resolution was put upon its passage and failed by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Eppes, Harriss, Hill, Hyman, McCabe and Seymour.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allen, Avera, Barnhardt, Chamberlain, Cowles, Cramer, Cunningham, Davis, Dunham, Ellis, of Catawba, Ellis, of Columbus, Flemming, Gudger, Holloman, Horton, Humprey, Johnston, Long, McCauley, McCotter, Merrimon, Miller, Morehead of Guilford, Morehead of Rockingham, Murphy, Nicholson, Norwood, Powell, Price, Ransom, Scott, Smith, Todd, Troy, Walker, Waring, Welch, Worth.

During the call Messrs. Hyman and Cramer rose to explain their votes.

Mr. Chamberlain, who failed to respond to his name when called, was, on motion of Mr. Troy, allowed to record his vote. Mr. C. stated that why he did not vote on call of his name was that he expected to submit some reflections on the resolution, but being prevented by physical inability to do so, he did not come to vote but as the Senator seemed disposed to press the matter he would vote in the negative.

Mr. Troy desired that his old friend, Mr. King, be permitted to record his vote, but looking around saw that he was absent. Before the vote was announced Mr. King appeared in the Senate, when Mr. Troy renewed his request. Mr. King stated that he was not in the Senate at the time the vote was called, was in the lobby taking a dose of medicine and he thought the rules would sustain him in refusing to vote. The President ruled that Mr. King was not required to vote and he was therefore excused.

Petitions Bills and Resolutions.

By Mr. Love, a bill in relation to the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad. Referred:

By Mr. Miller, a bill to prohibit the sale of spirituous liquors within two miles of Shelby, Cleveland county. Referred.

By Mr. Gudger, a bill to give to Burke and Yancey counties the proceeds of the sale of public lands in those counties. Referred.

By Mr. Cramer, a petition from citizens of Davidson, in regard to the prohibition of the liquor traffic. Referred.

By Mr. Dunham, a bill to incorporate the Ladies' Memorial Association of Wilmington. Referred.

By Mr. Dunham, a bill to restrain corruption in office. Referred.

By Mr. Dunham, a bill declaratory of and defining the meaning of chapter 43, laws 1870-'71. Referred.

By Mr. Dunham, a bill to amend chapter 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Referred.

Miscellaneous.

On motion of Mr. Price, leave of absence was granted Col. Cowles, Assistant Clerk of the Senate, from and after Friday next, on account of sickness in his family. Mr. Price stated that Col. Cowles would have his place supplied by a competent assistant.

Leave was granted Mr. Johnson for four days, from and after to-day.

Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, offered his resignation as a member of the Printing Committee, and, on motion of Mr. Avera, Mr. McCauley was appointed in his stead.

Mr. Love was granted leave from to-day till after recess.

On motion of Mr. Love, night sessions were discontinued till after recess.

Adjourned.

By Mr. Moss, a bill to amend the charter of the Wilson and Tar River Narrow Guage Railroad. Referred.

By Mr. Hanner, a bill to prevent the sale of liquor in certain localities in Chatham county. Referred.

The proposition of the Senate to print the report of the Joint Committee on the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind was agreed to.

Unfinished Business.

The consideration of the Railroad consolidation bill was resumed as the unfinished business of yesterday.

After the adoption of a very large number of amendments, Mr. Lucky moved to postpone the further consideration of bill until Friday at 12 m.

On the call of Mr. McGehee, the previous question was ordered. The question recurred on the motion to postpone until Friday and it was put to a vote and rejected.

The bill then passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 76, nays 30. The following is the ballot:

AYES.—Messrs. Abbott, Anderson, of Davie, Anderson, of Clay, Bean, Bennett, Blackwell, Blythe, Bowman, Brown, of Davidson, Brown of Mecklenburg, Bryson, of Jackson, Bryson, of Swain, Bryan, of Pitt, Bryan, of Sampson, Bryan, of Wilkes, Brooks, Bullard, Bunn, Byrd, Cobb, Costner, Cox, Dickey, Dudley, Dula, Ellison, Fletcher, Foster, Freeman, Gant, Gilbert, Gorman, Goodwyn, Grady, Gudger, Hanner, Haynes, Hinnant, Houston, Hughes, Johnston, Jones, of Caldwell, Jones, of Camden, Jones, of Orange, Joyner, Johns, Jordan, Lindsay, Luckey, McLaurin, McGehee, McNeill, Miller, Michael, Mitchell, Moring, Norment, Outlaw, Patrick, Paschal, Perry, of Bladen, Reid, of Randolph, Richardson, Rhodes, Scott, Settle, Shaw, Shackelford, Todd, Trivett, Turner, Warlick, Waddill, Webb, Wiley, and Wheeler.

[The Reporter could not give an intelligent report of the numerous amendments and the debate thereon, without publishing the bill in full, which cannot now be done on account of its length. As soon as the measure is perfected it will be given in full.]

On motion of Mr. Jones, the bill to amend the charter of the town of Hillsboro, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Bennett, the Senate bill to appoint a commission to provide the ways and means for the completion of the Carolina Central Railway, was taken up and passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 71, nays 3.

On motion of Mr. Waddill, the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Stanley to levy a special tax, was taken up and passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 72, nays 00.

On motion of Mr. Cox, the bill to change the time of holding the terms of the Superior Court in the counties of Pitt and Hyde, was taken up and passed its several readings.

LEGISLATIVE INCIDENTS.—In the Senate yesterday, Eppes, col., of Halifax, delivered a long, written speech in advocacy of his Civil Rights resolution. The Conservatives insisted on a fair and square vote on the resolution as offered by Eppes, and opposed to a man the amendment of Harriss, col., which was intended as a slight modification of the resolution, striking out the odium that Sumner's name entailed upon it. During Eppes' speech, Mr. Gudger asked the Senator to explain to the Senate Sumner's bill in full, that all might known exactly what they were voting for. Eppes replied that the gentleman had had sufficient time to pillage the Senate library and the Congressional Globe, and read the bill for himself. The scene after the call of the roll on the vote, and before it was announced, was intensely amusing. Several of the Republican Senators failed to vote, among the number, Mr. King, of Lenoir. Mr. Troy insisted upon Mr. King being allowed to vote. Mr. King replied that he was not in the bar of the Senate when the vote was taken, and the rules would sustain him in refusing. The point was raised that he was present when the vote was called on the resolution. He insisted that he was not, but was in the lobby taking a dose of medicine at the time. After much discussion, the President ruled that Mr. King could not be forced to vote, and thereupon he was saved.

Messrs. Seymour, McCabe and Smith were the only white Republicans voting in the affirmative.

A resolution offered by Mr. Merrimon, expressive of the sense of the General Assembly on what disposition should be made of the special tax bonds, was taken up and read, but the Senate adjourned before any action was taken on it.

The time of the House yesterday was consumed in discussing the consolidation railroad bill. The measure was thoroughly debated, and a large number of amendments were adopted.

The bill passed its third reading and was ordered to be returned to the Senate for concurrence in the amendments. Without the publication of the bill, a report of the amendments and the debate thereon, would not be very intelligible. The bill is rather a lengthy one, and we are compelled to postpone its publication until it is perfected.

THE ORPHAN ASYLUM.—The following communication, sent us by the Grand Secretary of Masons of North Carolina, explains itself. We hope the State papers will oblige by giving full circulation to the resolutions:

The following resolutions were adopted at the recent Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, held in this city. In view of the fact that they relate to an enterprise which so readily and fully commends itself to the favor of our people generally, and in compliance with the expressed desire of the Grand Lodge, I respectfully ask the publication of the same in all the papers of the State.

D. W. BAIN,
Grand Secretary.

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of this Grand Lodge are hereby tendered to many benevolent ladies and gentlemen, to the ministers of the gospel, to churches of various denominations, to Odd-Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Good Templars, Friends of Temperance, and other benevolent societies, whose hearty co-operation and liberal contributions have rendered timely and valuable assistance in the great work of ameliorating the condition of the orphan children of the State.

Resolved, That all benevolent societies and individuals are hereby cordially invited and requested to cooperate with us in providing funds and supplies for feeding, clothing, and educating indigent and promising orphan children at the Asylum in Oxford.

Resolved. That the Grand Secretary be instructed to request the publication of the foregoing resolutions in all the papers of the State.

THE DUPREZ & BENEDICT MINSTRELS.—The above named minstrel troupe opened at Tucker Hall last evening to a large and appreciative audience. The performance was in every particular a grand success, decidedly the best of its character that has appeared before a Raleigh audience.

Edwards, who "walks his own native heath," having been a member of old Joe Sweeney's Minstrels fifteen years ago, and a native of Petersburg, Va., is the principal end man, and seconded by Benedict, a man of superior burnt cork talent, form a pair that can furnish fun enough for the million.

We have not space to-night to mention in detail the excellence of the various performers, suffice it to say, that but few opportunities are offered our citizens to witness such an array of stage talent. The principal feature of the entertainment is, that while a perfect carnival of fun is kept up, not the slightest incident or saying bordering on vulgarity is permitted, and ladies can attend without the slightest fear of seeing or hearing anything offensive.

RUNAWAY.—The horse of Charles Strickly, Esq., attached to a wagon took fright yesterday morning in front of Williamson, Upchurch and Thomas' Commission House, and made Gilpin speed up Fayetteville to Hargett street where in turning the corner he spilt out his driver, inflicting severe and painful temporary injuries upon his body. Hargett street was almost completely blocked with single "steer keerts," but it was not sufficient to check the fiery steed who "went through" to the serious detriment of several wheels, etc., and creating a general consternation among the steers and their foot back drivers

THURSDAY.....DECEMBER 18, 1873.

Engelhard.

We notice in the proceedings of the House Thursday, that Mr. Carter introduced a bill to incorporate the town of Engelhard, in Hyde county.

This town is named in honor of our distinguished friend and confrere, Major ENGELHARD, of the Wilmington Journal, and is a compliment to that gentleman which is doubtless duly appreciated.

Who knows but what the town of Engelhard, situated in the fertile county of Hyde, will be some day a great commercial centre? Stranger things have happened.

Agassiz's School.

The death of AGASSIZ, the most eminent scientist of the present age, has called forth from the public press many fitting testimonials to his modesty, his perseverance, and the valued contributions he has made in the department of natural history.

It is said that his school at Penikese will be continued by eminent savans and is to be carried on under the original system designed by its founder. But it will be impossible to secure the services of another AGASSIZ. His success and fame belong to the American nation, and have conferred great honor and lustre upon the whole country.

Repeal of the Bankrupt Law.

Before Congress assembled we stated that an effort would probably be made by that body to repeal the present bankrupt law.

We notice in the proceedings of the House of Congress on Tuesday, a bill passed, providing for the repeal of the law, but allowing the proceedings under the existing law already instituted to be continued. The bill, however, reduces one-half the fees and costs in the cases now pending.

It is thought that the bill will also pass the Senate soon.

Persons contemplating bankruptcy will do well to file their petitions, in view of the prospect of an early repeal of the law.

Busteed and Durell.

It will be seen from our telegraphic columns that Congress is about to look into the official misconduct of the above brace of Radical judiciary luminaries, who have brought infamy upon their own names and disgraced the high positions they hold at the hands of the Government.

Mr. WILSON, of Indiana, from the Judiciary Committee, reported on yesterday, a resolution to authorize the Committee to send for persons and papers, to inquire into the official conduct of Judge BUSTEED, and also a resolution to instruct the Committee to report whether Judge DURELL should be impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors.

DURELL AND BUSTEED may be expelled from the bench, but they have placed a stain upon the judicial ermine which can never be effaced.

Southern Historical Society.

Gen. WADE HAMPTON, who has been appointed General Agent of the Southern Historical Society, has issued an address, making a strong appeal in behalf of the objects of the association.

Gen. HAMPTON gives two reasons why the Society, which was first established at New Orleans, under the superintendence of Rev. Dr. B. M. PALMER, has not proved a success. In the first place the location of the Parent Society at New Orleans was not well chosen, for several reasons named by him, and in the second place, no reliance can be placed on a voluntary and diffused agency in the collection of abundant materials, because persons who are competent for the task are engrossed with private business.

Both of these objections have now been removed. To remove the first, the Parent Society has been established at Richmond, and the Southern Magazine, of Baltimore, has been selected as the periodical in which all the records collected shall be regularly published. To remove the second, the Executive Committee of the Society have requested Gen. Hampton to aid in collecting the material for future history "by placing in its possession the best vindication of our people which can be bequeathed to posterity."

As we endorse the objects of the Society, and are anxious to see it encouraged and made a grand success, we copy below the concluding paragraphs of Gen. HAMPTON'S appeal:

"This task appeals so strongly to my patriotism and seems so vital to the welfare, the safety, the honor of the South, that I have accepted it, in the hope that though my efforts to accomplish it may not fall short of the success the work itself deserves, they will not be totally unavailing. In this hope, I appeal to every man, and every woman of the South, who has a pride in our past glory or our future honor; who wishes to place upon record for all time to come the vindication of our people; who desires to see the whole truth laid before the august tribunal of History; who cherishes amid all these evil times love and reverence for our heroic dead, or who hopes that our children shall not denounce their fathers as rebels and traitors, to aid this sacred work.

To insure the success of the Society, it will be necessary to obtain a large membership, so that the unavoidable expenses incident to its work may be met. A subscription of seven dollars per annum makes one a member, and entitles the subscriber—male or female—to receive all the publications of the Society, together with the Southern Magazine for one year. A subscription of fifty dollars constitutes a life member with all the privileges. All who may wish to assist the Society can communicate with me, care of Messrs. Turnbull Brothers, No. 8 North Charles street, Baltimore, or can enroll themselves as members by application to the State and local agents, who will be appointed."

Horace Maynard—A Pen Picture.

The Baltimore Gazette, after referring to the complimentary notices from the public press which have greeted the return of ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS to public life, contrasts the remarks which have been made concerning the elevation of another Southern man, HORACE MAYNARD, of Tennessee, whose return to Congress has given occasion to some newspaper men, who do not admire him very greatly, to "open their batteries and make him the butt of their satiric pens."

The Gazette then reproduces from a Western paper the following pen-picture of MAYNARD, by some Washington correspondent:

"I presume some of you have seen Maynard. He is a tall man with angular joints and scraggy bones, upon which but little meat has found lodgment. His head a misshapen octohedron, garnished with a nose that suggests a cross between a pickerel and a porcupine. This abnormal head is covered with a shock of hair that resembles a hemp-bale struck by lightning and the brain that is popularly supposed to inhabit its recesses flickers at you out of a pair of little eyes which make you think of a weasel reconnoitering for rats under a hay stack."

Our readers will remember the triangular contest in Tennessee for Congressman for the State at large. Gen. CHEATHAM was regularly nominated by the Democratic State Convention for Congressman, but the inevitable ANDY JOHNSON, thinking his claims superior to those of any other man, became an independent candidate after having been defeated for the nomination. MAYNARD was the Radical nominee, and as JOHNSON ran the race through on his own hook, he detached enough votes from Gen. CHEATHAM, to elect the Radical candidate. The Democrats with a majority in the popular vote in Tennessee of about forty thousand, lost their Congressman at large, through the treachery of ANDREW JOHNSON.

MAYNARD has been one of the most odious of the Radical politicians of the South. He has the character of being vindictive and malicious, and destitute of any generous or ennobling qualities. He is a man of some ability, but has prostituted his talents to the injury and defamation of his section.

The increase of the public debt this month is put at twelve million dollars. Secretary Richardson has written a letter to Mr. Dawes, in which he estimates the increase at five millions at the present time. Whatever may be the amount the fact is sufficient to show that additional taxation is necessary, and so vanishes the much-vaunted "free breakfast table" under a tax on tea and coffee, both of which the Secretary recommends be placed in the tariff.

On Saturday, Mr. J. W. H. Robinson, of Brunswick, came to the depot at Bellfield, Va., to bring freight. On his return home that evening he fell from his wagon catching his head between the spokes of the wheel. He was terribly mutilated, his head being crushed to pieces. He lingered until late Sunday night, when he died.

WHIPPED FOR STEALING PORK.—A white man named Henry Elder, was arrested Friday evening for stealing pork from Mr. Taylor's store, in Ettricks. He was carried before Justice Perkins, of Chesterfield county, who ordered that he should receive twenty lashes. The whipping was duly administered.—Petersburg News.

A bill to exempt manufacturing enterprises from taxation has passed both houses of the South Carolina Legislature.

Brick Pomeroy is in Europe and means to stay there a year.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

His Honor, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:
"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from sick Headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an aperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.
H. POTTER."

PEARCE COTTON

The above Cotton was introduced into this State by the undersigned about ten years ago, this being the second crop. The Cotton is of the long staple species, resembling in appearance, texture and staple, but not equal to the celebrated Sea Island Cotton, therefore commanding a price next above that of the best grade of the common kind. It is also the most prolific Cotton now known in the United States, so pronounced by many of our best planters who have seen it grow. It grows in clusters of from eight to twelve squares, and as many as five hundred and upwards of bolls to squares can be counted to the stalk, producing from three to four thousand pounds of seed cotton per acre on good land. It is also an earlier Cotton than the common kind.
Seed for sale by the undersigned at two dollars per gallon, or four dollars per bushel. Small quantities can be sent by Mail, large quantities by Express.
All monies or seed can either be sent by Registered Letter or Post Office Order to the undersigned at Hilliardston, Nash Co., N. C.
Orders for seed will be promptly attended to. J. J. PEARCE.

THE DAILY NEWS.

THURSDAY.....DECEMBER 18 1873

NORTH CAROLINA.

Wilmington had a hard gale on Saturday.

Sneak thieves are operating briskly in Wilmington.

Katie Putnam is expected in Wilmington some time in February.

The Wilmingtonians want a new county by the name of Jefferson.

The failures of bungling burglars are nightly noted in Wilmington.

Dr. Wm. S. M. Davidson, a prominent citizen of Mickienburg county, died on Monday.

The children of St. John's Church, Wilmington, will have a Fair and Festival on the 22nd inst.

Alvin Britt, who killed J. H. Hayes in Robeson county several weeks ago, has not been captured.

Up to the present, Craven county has issued eight marriage licenses—seven colored and one white.

Capt. Geo. Morrison, who was hurt so badly some time ago on the Carolina Central Railway, is rapidly improving.

The Military Institute at Charlotte, under the Superintendence of Col. J. P. Thomas, is in a very flourishing condition.

The Wilmington Star says that a rendezvous of deserters from various ships in that port, was broken up by the police on Tuesday last, near that city. Several were arrested, but quite a number made their escape.

Says the Wilmington Journal of the 16th inst. in regard to the recent murder near Abbottsburg:

"But few additional particulars have transpired relative to the murder near Abbottsburg, on last Friday night, of Mr. Thomas C. Thompson. In addition to the two negroes, Mitchell Shipman and William Wright, who were arrested on Saturday, charged with the murder, three others, whose names we could not learn, have been taken up on suspicion. When the train passed Abbottsburg yesterday a jury which had been empanneled by the Coroner, were engaged in holding an inquest, the result of which has not yet transpired."

Says the Wilmington Star of the 16th inst:

"We see from a printed circular that is being furnished to each stockholder and bonholder of the Carolina Central Railway that at a meeting of the Board of Directors, held in this city on the 13th inst., a series of resolutions were adopted in reference to the Hon. H. G. Onderdonk, one of the Directors. They charge that Judge Onderdonk has made publications, by printed postal cards and circulars, calculated to interiere with the sale of the securities of the Carolina Central Railway Company, and therefore authorize the President and Treasurer to employ counsel in the city of New York, or elsewhere if desired, to institute suit against Judge Onderdonk for damages and to take all other necessary steps in that direction. They also resolved that, in view of the fact, as charged, that Judge Onderdonk had issued certain publications reflecting upon the character and motives of a majority of the members of the Board, etc., it is highly improper for him to retain a position as a member of the Board and request him to resign the same.

THE NEGRO CIVIL RIGHTS CONVENTION.—The results of the late National Civil Rights Convention, held in Washington, are as follows: The adoption of an address to Congress and the people in behalf of their cause, endorsing Senate bill No. 1, or some bill equivalent to it; the organization of a National Council of Civil Rights, consisting of one member from each State and Territory, with an executive committee located in Washington; all existing organizations are to perform the functions conferred by the Conventions; endorsing Senator Sumner and all other friends of progress; thanking President Grant for his courtesy in receiving the members of the Convention and for his friendly utterances to them; organizing a committee on Justice, to be prepared to celebrate the passage of a civil rights bill—the committee consists of one member from each State and Territory; appointing a national historical and statistical association to report to the National Executive Committee of the council subject relating to the interests of the colored race; a resolution in favor of the independence of Cuba, and endorsing the call for a convention to take measures for the erection in Washington of a monument to the colored sailors and soldiers who fell in the late civil war.

MORE ELECTIONS IN MISSISSIPPI.—One of the chief attractions of a carpet-bag government is that it gives its citizens plenty of elections. In Mississippi the delightful state of incomprehensibility to which the Legislature has reduced the State Constitution enables the Governor to call a new election whenever he dislikes the result of the last one. Governor Powers is now preparing to test the legality of the election for Governor; and that there may be no lack of material for controversy, has called elections in twenty counties on December 30 for members of the Legislature, although an election was held in each November 4. He justifies his action by the Constitution, and his opponents do the same. Such a Constitution is doubtless well calculated to keep up a popular interest in political affairs, but its benefits to the prosperity of the State are not so apparent.—New York Tribune.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On Saturday night last, William Dickinson, a young fellow only twenty-four years of age, a brakeman on Capt. Lynch's freight train, on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, got off at White Sulphur to visit his widowed mother there, intending to rejoin his train as it returned from Hinton Monday morning. As it returned, about 10 o'clock that morning, it did not slack up as he expected, but he leaped for it, missing and falling in the ditch. He made a second leap, which was fatal, falling under the train. His brains were scattered over the ties, and his body was gathered in pieces, scattered along the track. He leaves a mother with several children, of whom he was the sole support.—Lynchburg Virginian.

Mrs. Oates' Opera Comique Troupe is drawing large houses in Richmond.

A Maine tooth-pick factory has contracted for 500 cords of wood.

Wisconsin is practically out of debt.

UDDERZOOK SENTENCED.—The Baltimore Sun says: "During the passing of the sentence, Judge Butler was very much moved, showing how keenly he felt the terrible importance of so unpleasant a duty, and when he had finished he reclined back in his chair, and, placing his hand over his tearful eyes, so remained for several minutes.

"Udderzook, throughout the trying ordeal, changed some little in color, and showed some nervousness, but when the sentence was concluded he, at the direction of Mr. Perdue, took his seat in a orderly manner, with not a tear or show of fear evident. Exceptions will be taken."

SHOCKING THEATRE ACCIDENT IN NEW YORK.—The audience at Niblo's Theatre, New York, were electrified on Tuesday evening by the sudden fall of a Miss Jane Nixon, who was poised in mid-air, apparently standing upon a pedestal fifteen feet from the stage. For a moment the excitement was intense. Miss Nixon fell to the stage, and there being no conveniences in the theatre in case of accidents to the employees, the still unconscious girl was taken to the police station. She had sustained a severe, if not fatal, concussion of the spine. The accident is attributed to the straining of the machinery.

A LADY WHO DANCED WITH WASHINGTON.—MRS. Francis M. Burling died in Milford, Pa., recently, aged 96. Her maiden name was Hurst. She was a belle in New York society nearly eighty years ago. On one occasion, at a public reception in that city, she was General Washington's partner in a dance. She was on terms of intimate acquaintanceship with Lafayette, Aaron Burr, Alexander Hamilton, and many of great men and women of that day.

Mrs. Bonham, a lady who resided on Cregon Hill, Richmond, Va., and who had been sick for a week past, was killed on Saturday night by having a dose of poison administered to her through mistake. Her physicians had ordered two prescriptions to be filled—one to be taken in doses of five drops, and the other, a teaspoonful of the medicine from the wrong bottle, was given her, which caused her death in about ten minutes.

INSURANCE CONTRACT.—We learn from the New York Journal of Commerce that, in a case decided by Judge Lowell, at Boston, the plaintiff recovered his insurance, though previous to the fire he had not paid his premium, or actually taken out his policy, but had simply made a verbal contract with the agent, his custom having been to insure with that agent, and to pay the premiums whenever the agent sent for them.

The risk incurred by newspapers in assuming that to have happened which ought to have happened was illustrated the other day in Georgia. The Times and Planter, of Sparta, gave an account of the hanging of Milton Malone, who had been sentenced to die on November 28th. The fact was that Malone committed suicide a few hours before the time appointed for the execution.

SONGS OF SEVEN.

BY JEAN INGELOW.

SEVEN TIMES ONE—EXULTATION.

There's no dew left on the daisies and clover,
There's no rain left in heaven;
I've said my "seven times" over and over,
Seven times one are seven.

I am old, so old I can't write a letter;
My birthday lessons are done;
The lambs play always, they know no better,
They are only one times one.

O moon! in the night I have seen you sailing
And shining so round and low;
You were bright! ah bright, but your light is failing,
You are nothing now but a bow.

You moon, have you done something wrong in heaven,
That God has hidden your face?
I hope if you have you will soon be forgiven,
And shine again in your place.

O velvet bee, you're a dusty fellow,
You've powdered your legs with gold!
O brave marsh many buds, rich and yellow,
Give me your money to hold!

O columbine, open your folded wrapper,
Where two twin turtle-doves dwell!
O cuckoopint, toll me the purple clapper
That hangs in your clear green bell!

And show me your nest with the young ones in it;
I will not steal them away;
I am old! you may trust me, linnet, linnet,
I am seven times one to-day.

CHARLES PRATT:
NEW YORK, May 13th, 1869.

DEAR SIR:—The undersigned, officers of Fire Insurance Companies, have noticed, with pleasure, your endeavors to introduce a safe and reliable illuminating oil, in place of the cheap and low grades of Kerosene Oil so commonly used. The merits of your "Astral" Oil, which are so generally conceded by scientific men, the press, and the public at large, leads us to hope that your endeavors may be crowned with success, and that consumers will fully protect themselves from FIRE and ACCIDENT, by the use of an oil which is PERFECTLY SAFE.

Such we think the "Astral" Oil to be (standing as it does a test of 155 degrees against 110 degrees of best Kerosene,) and we feel that its general introduction as security, would materially diminish the Fire Risks on all buildings in which Kerosene is stored or used.

Robt. D. Hart, President Astor Fire Insurance Company
J. V. Harriott, President Fireman's Insurance Company.
B. S. Walcott, President Hanover Fire Insurance Company.
E. J. Lowber, President Corn Exchange Insurance Company.
George W. Savage, President International Insurance Company
Stephen Crowell, President Phœnix Insurance Company.

Special attention is called to the following letter, from Prof. W. C. Kerr, Geologist for the State of North Carolina:

GEOLOGICAL ROOMS,
Raleigh, N. C., July 4th, 1870.

JULIUS LEWIS, Esq.:—Dear Sir—I have subjected the sample of PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL you sent me to a rigorous fire test. I find it does not flash below 145 degrees, nor burn below 155 degrees. I consider it PERFECTLY SAFE.
Yours, W. C. KERR.
